

2020 Pastor's Choice Resource List

Hey Everyone,

During this Coronavirus season I have been thinking about I can best help you get closer to God, and increasingly become a disciple of Jesus Christ. We cannot gather right now, and Steve and I are preparing for this to be our reality until Spring. If we open sooner, great, we will be ready, but we just cannot plan week to week.

So I want us to have things we can do at home, as individuals, as families, as virtual small groups. I am guessing you may have more opportunity to read and spend time studying God and his word. To that end I am giving you a personal list of recommended resources. Below is a list of books and video resources from RightNow Media for you to absorb during our lockdown and over the holiday season. What a better time to learn and grow with Jesus.

The resources with stars beside are ones I especially would prioritize generally, but you may find that another one better calls out to you during this time. I hope these resources will help you through this time.

I strongly encourage you to invite others to join you with the RightNow Media resources as a virtual small group. It is very easy to do by just clicking "Watch as Virtual Group" button on the specific study.

If you are not subscribed to RightNow Media or have lost your login info, please contact Wendy at the church office. This is an incredible free resource for those connected to the Grace Church Family.

Enjoy and Grow!
